This section presents the Manchu dataset of real handwritten archival documents, sourced from Qing Dynasty Imperial Household Department Archives in the Collection of Dalian Library. It contains a total of 2,805 categories of Manchu words and 117,443 samples. The structure of the dataset is shown in the figure below: Manchu image samples of the same word are stored in the same folder. Each folder is named after the Latin transliteration of the corresponding word; the samples within the folder are identical in content, and the sample names are consistent with the file names. For example, the folder named zhuwe contains only Manchu word samples of zhuwe, and the image files themselves are also named zhuwe. Among all categories, 1,145 are consistent with the entries in the New Comprehensive Manchu-Chinese Dictionary.
